EDUCATE YOURSELF TO AVOID SCAMS

You know what they say, "If it seems too good to be true, it probably is." Whether the scam involves phony winnings from a fake sweepstakes or a threat to have you arrested for supposed non-payment of taxes, education is the key to foiling scam artists. There are so many ways a scam artist will try to con you out of your money that it is impossible to list them all – but here are a few of the scams circulating:

- Threatening Message Scams
- Grandparent Scams
- Sweepstakes Scams
- Computer Scams
- Foreign Lottery Scams
- Inheritance/Beneficiary Scams
- * IRS Enforcement Call Scams
- * Romance Scams
- * Military Family Scams
- * Jury Duty Scams
- * Work at Home Scams
- * Scholarship Search Firm Scams

For more information on these scams, go online to Common Scams Attorney General. To be informed is to be safe. Protect your money and your accounts. If you really win something, you will never be asked to pay for anything up front.
