AI VOICE CLONING SCAMS

A.I. Voice Scams have been on the rise, here are some tips to protect you and your family:

Don't answer phone calls from unknown numbers, if they need to get ahold of you, they can leave a voicemail and you can determine if you would like to call them back.

If you are suspicious that the person you are talking to isn't legitimate, hang up and call the phone number you know is associated with them.

Avoid sharing personal information to the caller until you are absolutely sure about their identity.

One of the biggest A.I. Scams is the scammer using a family member's voice to get you to send them money. Create a secret code word with your family, and if someone calls claiming to be them, simply ask for that code word, and hang up if they do not get it right.

Please join us on Tuesday, July 28th for our RedHawks Tailgating event and game. We will meet in the parking lot at 6:00 pm to enjoy a meal with our members. The game starts at 7:02pm. Reserved seat tickets for the game and meal are only $10. Registration deadline is July 14th. Let's cheer on the Red Hawks!
